Proceedings.

Mr. Thsien appeared for the Police.
 Mr. Yue Kynag An appeared for the accused.

Accused :- I live at 141, Rue Pere Robert.

Mr. Thsien then re-outlined the case.

C.D.C.18 :- At 1.0.p.m. on the 1/5 last I received information that a meeting was being held at Chikiang and Foochow Roads corner so I proceeded thence and saw the accused in front of a crowd of people by a lodging house. He was shouting slogans at the time - "Down with the Kuomintang" and "Death to Chiang-Kai-Shek". He was arrested and at first gave a wrong address in P'Town but later took us to the address in Rue Pere Robert. 35 Communist books were found there. He then took us to another house in the French Concession where we unearthed some more books. That house was not occupied by the accused but by a man named Lee Kyi Hwa.

C.D.C.274 :- Our corroborated and added that he heard the accused shout "Down with Imperialism" on Foochow Road. He attempted to run away but I overtook and arrested him. There were no papers in his possession but a number lay scattered over the road. I do not know who threw them. I heard him shouting and saw him gesticulating with his hand to his mouth.

Accused :- At 12.00.a.m. that day I took tiffin in Lee Kyi Hwa's house as my own had been burnt down in Chapel. I had gone to Nanking Road to purchase a few new articles to replace those destroyed. As I passed Foochow Road I saw a crowd and endeavored to force my way through but could not. I heard some men shouting as I heard "Robbers" mentioned I ran away. I fell down in doing so and a C.P.D. arrested me. I did not shout slogans and I did not hear what those who did said. I heard some shouting but I did not notice any one gesticulating. I do not know how many books were seized by the Police but there were a number in the room. They were not all of a Communist nature however. These taken have been selected from amongst them. I am not a Communist and am not in sympathy Accused, continuing:-Lee Kyi Hwa is my teacher and many book were found in his house as he is a keen student of sociology and has many volumes on that subject in various languages. All my own books were burnt in Chapel. I depend on translations and essay writing for a living and was forced to make some money quickly so I borrowed my friends books for reference. All those found can be purchased at any bookstore.

C.D.C.18 :-The books listed were found at Lee's house.

Accused, in answer to Mr. Yue:-This is a manuscript I drew up after translation from a foreign book. I would ask the Court to order that the draft of a novel I prepared be returned to me.

Judge :- I cannot do this until the Kuomintang Authorities have finished examining them.

Counsel then summed-up.

at 7-30 P.M. on the 1-5-32 and interpreted by _____

My name is Dong Mei Nyi (董曼尼) age 20 years, native of Nanchang in the Province of Kiangsi. Until I was 10 years of age I studied at home under my father who was a teacher in the Nanchang Primary School. Upon attaining my tenth year I entered my father's school where I studied primary subjects. At thirteen I entered the Nanchang Middle School where I again studied primary subjects. By ending of my 16th years I passed to the senior class and was converted to Christianity. In my 18th year I graduated from the Nanchang Middle School and entered the National Central University at Nanking. During my two years there I studied chiefly western classical literature intersperced with political economy, commerce, philosophy and and I graduated in month of February. During my second year at the National Central University I married Wong Kai Woo (王開湖) a native of Hupeh who was a clerk at the Ministry of Education and between February and September 1931 I resided at Yue Cha Chao, Nanking. In September I came to Shanghai to see the Manager of the Ching Woo and Nanking Party Book Shop situated on North Szechuen Road, which company had offered to reprint some translations which I had been engaged during my stay in Nanking and upon my arrival here I went to live with Professor Lee Chang Hwa (李劍華) of the Fu-Tan Collège, who resided on North Szechuen Road. (I have forgotten the number). After residing there for one month I returned to Nanking to bring my wife to Shanghai, upon our arrival here we went to live at No. 450 Kiangwan Road, we remained there until the end of January at which times the Sino Japanese Hostilities made it impossible for us to

I live there and the house was completely destroyed. So we proceeded and to the house of a friend named Liu Tao Hun (劉道恒) a gold exchange broker, residing at 208 Rue Chapeau, French Concession and about one month ago Liu left Shanghai and it being impossible for me to continue to reside there I moved to 141 Route Pere Robert. Since my arrival in Shanghai I have written a History of Chinese Literature but it was unfortunately burned in my home in Kiangwan and to-day at about 11 a.m. I left my home to go to a Professors Lee's home which is now situated at 76 Shing Chung Li Route "erve de Sleyes and I had a meal there ~~max~~ and at 1 p.m. left to come to Nanking Road to make various purchases. When I arrived at Foochow Road I saw a large crowd of people some of whom were shouting slogans, before I could get out of the crowd I was arrested by the Police and brought to this Station. The subsequent search of my home on Route Pere Robert resulted in the discovery of a number of books which I bought for the purpose of studying the trend of the modern mind. I declare that I am not a member of the Communist Party, nor have any intention of so becoming.
